

Gruber Logistics to open new office in Cologne

27. März 2009

The international haulage and logistics company Gruber Logistics will augment its existing 15 European branch offices by opening an additional one in Cologne (Germany) in April. This centre of excellence will focus exclusively on the Russian market and will mainly develop this business in the intermodal sector.

www.gruber-logistics.com